We explain your rights to you and help you in claiming these rights if necessary. We collaborate closely with other counselling centres and provide information about trade unions in Germany.

If you require legal advice, we can help you find an appropriate authority.

Advice is free and confidential.

We advise you on your rights and obligations as an employee and support you if you are facing problems in your job.

- Questions about your contract of employment?
- Questions about your working conditions?
- Questions about your payment?
- Uncertain whether your rights as an employee are being respected?

We can advise you,

- If you are employed or have a training contract or are doing an internship.
- If you want to start employment and wish to find out about your rights as an employee in Germany beforehand.

Counselling by Fair Integration is provided in all 16 federal states and implemented by various providers within the Network "Integration through Qualification (IQ)".
